Pirates

Stevenson's great creation, the one-legged Long John Silver, is one of the most memorable characters in English literature. A few years after Treasure Island was published, J. M. Barrie created a similar figure in his play Peter Pan – Captain Hook, who had only one hand (instead of having only one leg). In any adventure story, it is essential to have the 'good guys' struggling against the 'bad guys'. Pirates were extremely suitable for the role of bad guys, as they went against the rules of society and lived outside the law. Unlike ghosts and monsters, which were also popular in the stories of the nineteenth century, pirates really existed, and therefore, they were much more effective figures of fear and horror for children – even older ones.

2 What do you think ? Answer one of the questions and write it down.

- 1) Why do Long John Silver's men not catch Black Dog?
- 2) Why is Captain Smollett unhappy with the sailors?

3 Imagine you are Jim. You are going on the Hispaniola.

What will you take in your bag?
Which are your five most important things?

Jim's packing list

4 Is Jim afraid ? Tick 'yes' or 'no'.

	no	yes
When he is in the barrel of fruit	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
When he tells Mr. Trelawney about the conversation	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
When he gets into one of the boats	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
After the pirates kill a man	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
When Ben Gunn comes towards him	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

Read chapter 2 of the book.

1 Who says these things ? What do you think ? Write the names behind the quote.

1. "Listen! A man is dying!" _____
2. "There is a good, strong house. We can stay in it. We can find the treasure from there."

3. "I'll wait here for you, doctor." _____
4. "I hit one of them" _____
5. "We hit the boat!" _____
6. "Jim, you're not dead!" _____

2 Sort the events in sequence.

(1-8)

- Mr. Trelawney and his men get off the boat.
- Hunter and the doctor look round the island.
- They go back to the ship.
- The doctor and the men put food and guns in a small boat.
- The pirates on the Hispaniola shoot at them.
- They leave the ship in a small boat.
- They get to the beach and run to the house.
- The pirates on the island shoot Redruth.

Read chapter 3 of the book.

1 Underline the correct words.

- a) Silver- the other pirates want to kill Jim.
b) Silver gives the pirates a black paper - the treasure map .
c) Jim tells the Doctor he isn't - is with the pirates.
d) A dead pirate - Jim shows the way to the treasure.
e) The pirates hear a song - it's Flint - Ben Gunn.
f) The treasure is under the tree - Ben Gunn has the treasure.
g) They leave the pirates on the island with - without a boat.
h) Jim and his friends their dinner on the island - ship.

2 Write down why these things are important in the story ?

- Billy Bones's old box
- a barrel of fruit
- a small boat
